

CECS Progress Policy

The Progress Policy is designed to encourage successful completion of a degree at UCF. The Progress Policy is enforced beginning with the 2015 catalog year. The policy has 2 components: Low grades and withdrawals and multiple course attempts.

Low Grade and Withdrawal Component

- Students with (7) C-, D, F, W, NC, U grades at UCF will be placed in a probationary lack of progress status with the college. Students will meet with a CECS advisor.
- Students with (10) C-,D, F, W, NC, U grades at UCF will meet with an academic advisor for career planning and selection of a major outside of CECS.

Repeat Course Component

- Student with two unsuccessful attempts of the same UCF course will be placed in a probationary lack of progress status with the college. Students will meet with a CECS advisor.
- Students with three unsuccessful attempts of the same UCF course will meet with an academic advisor for career planning and selection of a major outside of CECS.
