You're Invited!
Grand Opening
Lockheed Martin Cyber Innovation Lab
University of Central Florida
Friday, February 15, 2019
10 a.m. - Noon
10 a.m.: Lab Demo and Ribbon Cutting
Engineering Building I: Room 186, Lab

Dr. Dale Whittaker, President, University of Central Florida
Frank St. John, Executive Vice President, Lockheed Martin Missiles and Fire Control
Stephanie Hill, Deputy Executive Vice President, Lockheed Martin Rotary and Mission Systems

10:45 a.m.-Noon: Speakers and Panel
Engineering Building II, Room 102, Auditorium

Panel: Cyber Security Today
Hear about today's technology trends and what cyber students need to do to prepare for a career in the field.

Moderator: Dr. Elizabeth Klonoff, Vice President for Research, Dean of Graduate Studies, University of Central Florida
Captain Tim Hill, Commanding Officer, Naval Air Warfare Center Training Systems Division and Naval Support Activity, Orlando
Colonel Richard Haggerty, Project Manager, Instrumentation, Targets, Threat Simulators and SOF Training Systems, U.S. Army
Tom Warner, Vice President, Lockheed Martin Cyber Solutions
Lori Pridmore, Director, Advanced Technology & Innovation, Lockheed Martin Engineering and Technology

Noon: Lunch in Engineering II Atrium
RSVP by February 8th:
https://www.ucffoundation.org/CECSLabOpening
For questions, contact: Francesca.Botteri@ucf.edu